Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. — 2 Timothy 4:2

Abiding Day by Day

The past month has been a wonderful chance to simply walk step by step with the Savior. God has opened the doors to meet with seven different pastors face to face and others over the phone to encourage them in ministry. It is wonderful to be able to minister to the Body of Christ by uplifting the shepherds.

It was good to be back for two Sundays at First Baptist Indialantic. God is still working there and the people were a blessing to us.

First Baptist Palm Bay asked Jim to come and teach Adult Sunday School and preach the morning service Sunday the 25th. It was wonderful to see a local body that truly is ready to do whatever God asks them to do.

God also provided Jim the opportunity to meet with Eric Reed, his friend and editor at Leadership Journal of Christianity Today.

MARCH/APRIL

They worked together on the workbook for The Principles of a God-Centered Church. It is exciting to see that it is beginning to come together. Pray for Jim as starting April 11th he will be teaching the Principles on Wednesday nights at FBC Merritt Island, FL as a kind of “Beta” test of the workbook material. The sessions will be video taped as well, to prepare for combining DVD teaching with the workbook.

The Blessing of Harvest

Praise God that in His perfect time we have seen a young man named Chris give his life to the Lord through the trip Jim took to Thailand last year. At first Chris was not at all interested in Jesus, but wanted to spend time with Jim in order to practice his English. Jim invited him to come to church with him in Bangkok, and asked Chris to translate everything to him. When Jim left, Chris was still lost. Last week Jim got an E-mail from Chris, “I decided to give my life to Jesus just a month after you had left...Thank you for putting me in the right way of God.” Praise the Lord! As we plant and water HE provides the increase! AMEN!

Many Thanks!
