Autumn 2012

Thankful People...

PHILIPPIANS 4:4-7

Do you rejoice ahead of time? Or do you rejoice only after things have worked out? Thankful people rejoice ahead of time, because the Lord is near! This doesn't mean that we don't have concerns. Paul tells us to bring to God our concerns, but we are to DO IT WITH THANKSGIVING!

In other words, thank God ahead of time for what He is going to do. We can thank Him for His purposes in all things because His purposes are good. As you bring your concerns and requests to God, thank Him at the same time for the fact that you can trust His decisions.

This is how you can rejoice at all times. You may not know how things will work out, but you can be sure that your Heavenly Father has it all in His hands.

The same Paul who wrote this passage wrote this from prison. He was living out what he was encouraging his readers to do. He may not have known how things were going to work out for him, but he knew that in either life or death he would be fine. Either way was good for him. (Philippians 1:19-23)

Thankful people look at the big picture. (God's view of things) This Thanksgiving season, let's keep on rejoicing and be thankful. The turkey will taste better if your stomach is not in knots.

If, however, you would like to make a donation to help offset the cost of making and mailing materials, that would be appreciated.

God uses the generosity of people like you to provide for the needs of this ministry. He has used many of your year-end gifts to keep us ministering throughout the year. As the end of the year approaches, please consider giving to help us continue to go wherever God leads.
